The requestor must indicate which form of access is required, identify the right that he/she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- 9.4 If the request is made on behalf of another person, the requestor must submit proof of the capacity in which the requestor is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 9.5 PAIA makes provision for certain grounds upon which a request for access to information must be refused. On this basis, the Information Officer will make a decision whether or not to grant a request for access to information.

10 PAYMENT OF FEES

- 10.1 PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely –
- 10.1.1 a request fee, which will be a standard non-refundable administration fee, payable prior to the request being considered; and
- 10.1.2 an access fee, payable when access is granted which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

- 10.2 Subsequent to a request being made, the Information Officer, shall by notice require the requester, excluding personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.
- 10.3 If the search for and preparation for disclosure of the record has been made, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, Platinum Life will request the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 10.4 Platinum Life may withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Annexure C.
- 10.5 A requester whose request has been granted must pay the applicable access fee for reproduction, search, preparation and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 10.6 In terms of POPIA, a data subject has the right to request Platinum Life to confirm, free of charge, whether or not it holds personal information about the data subject and request from Platinum Life the record or a description of the personal information held, including information about the identity of all third parties, or categories of third parties, who have, or have had, access to the information.
- 10.7 POPIA further provides that where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to them, Platinum Life must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

11 APPLICABLE TIME-PERIODS

- 11.1 Platinum Life will inform the requester within 30 days after receipt of the request of its decision whether or not to grant the request.
- 11.2 The 30 day period may be extended by a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of Platinum Life or the records are not located at Platinum Life.

12 OUTCOME OF THE REQUEST (GRANTING OR REFUSING)

Should the request be refused, the notice will state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of the PAIA relied upon; and that the requester may lodge an application with a Court against the refusal of the request.

13 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

  - 13.1.3 protection of certain confidential information of a third person;

  - 13.1.6 the commercial information of Platinum Life;

14 REMEDIES FOR REFUSAL

Should the requester be dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to refuse access, that person may within 30 days after notification of the refusal apply to a Court for the appropriate relief.
